SOUTHERN PREACHER TALKED TO NORTHERN MEN.

Memorial Sermon By Rev. Randolph To a Large Audience in Christian Church.

The annual memorial sermon under the auspices of the Sedgwick Post No. 21, G. A. R. and the Women's Relief Corps was heard Sunday afternoon at the First Christian church by a large audience. The members of these two bodies agreed that they have not received a more patriotic sermon than that given by Rev. J. D. Randolph of the Buchanan Street Methodist church, who was the speaker.

A quartet composed of Mrs. F. P. Robinson, Miss Phyllis Sayler, W. E. Goforth and H. J. Becker sang "There is a Land Mine Eye Hath Seen" preceding the sermon. The other music for the service was congregational singing of patriotic hymns.

At the close of the sermon by Reverend Randolph, who is Southern born and reared, the old soldiers, in passing the pulpit where the young minister stood as they filed out of the church, each gave him a hearty handshake in appreciation of his sermon that was full to the brim of patriotism, and as the women of the Relief Corps followed, they also shook hands with him.

Rev. Randolph took his text from Exodus 12:14, "And this day shall be unto you for a memorial." He said:

"We met today for a purpose that has the dignity and tenderness of a funeral service without its sadness. It is not a new bereavement, but one that time has softened, that brings us here. We are not called upon to stand beside the new made grave and pronounce the mystic words, ashes to ashes, dust to dust. The earth has hidden the scars upon her bosom from the sexton's spade with a kindly mantle of sod. Above every tomb the warm summer sun has shown, and the butterfly ancient emblem of immortality, has waved its tiny wings above the resting place of every comrade.

"Almost half a century has gone since Lee handed his conquered sword to Grant and the Grand Army passed in review at Washington. Men who in that triumphant procession, marched with the lusty step of youth, are tottering with age and listening for the last roll call. A few years more and all the vast host who were baptized with fire and blood on 'the field of honor' will have been mustered out and the muster rolls laid away forever.

"War is endless and the distance traversed by its echo is immeasurable. But time softens all hurts. We see more clearly through the perspective of years. The heat of battle is gone. The smoke of conflict has drifted away. From the vantage point of fifty years we may look back at the great Civil war, and with vision less clouded by prejudice, gain a better understanding of the factors that for four long years plunged the nation into the raging fire of civil conflict.

"That such a conflict should come was inevitable. Our country was settled by two distinct types of Englishmen, the puritan and the cavalier. Both were brave and resourceful; worthy to become the fathers of a race of conquerors. The puritan brought to the new world the skill of the artisan, the instincts of the merchant, and the great, rugged God-fearing conscience molded by the theology of John Calvin. The cavalier was the child of chivalry. His reverence for woman amounted almost to worship. His ideals were those of the aristocrat. He had a passion to rule and a hunger for broad acres. Two different streams of life emerged from Plymouth and Jamestown. One flowed northward into Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont; southward into New York and Pennsylvania; westward into Ohio Indiana and Illinois, crossed the mighty Mississippi and went westward to the sea. The other flowed southward into the Carolinas, into Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Florida and crossed over into Texas. The cavalier settled Tennessee, Kentucky, Arkansas and to a large extent, Missouri. No one can understand the history of the United States who does not understand the difference between the ideals of the puritan and the cavalier. They had met and clashed on the soil of the old world. They were destined to meet and clash on the soil of the new.

"But there was a more fundamental reason why civil war was inevitable in the United States than a clash between the ideals of the puritan and cavalier. He would be a rash student of history who would assert that had the puritan landed at Jamestown and the cavalier at Plymouth, their roles in the Civil war would not have been reversed. All moral questions grow from economic roots. The economic inconsistency between slave labor and free labor had far more to do with bringing on the war than conflicting traditions. Lincoln was right when he said no nation could continue to exist half slave and half free. Free labor will destroy slave labor or slave labor will swallow up free labor. They cannot exist side by side. The time to have settled the slave question was when the constitution was written. It should then have been written out of it forever. No one man, no one set of men were responsible for the war, but conditions inherited from the past. The conflict was irrepressable. A chasm had opened between North and South that could be bridged only by human bodies. Passions had been aroused that nothing could satisfy but an appeal to arms. For four long years the quality of Americanism was to be tried by fire. 'The moving finger writes and all your piety nor wit can move it back to cancel half a line.'

"Great issues were at stake. What was to be the future of the Republic? Were there to be two English speaking nations on the North American continent? The world has never seen such a struggle. Those who thought a few weeks or a few months would end the war were neither prophets nor sons of phophets. Those in whose veins flows the blood of Norman and Saxon do not know when they are defeated. In defense of home and hearthstone they are ready to give the last full measure of the heart's devotion.

"Consider what manner of men clashed with sword and musket in the decisive battle of the Civl war. Keen of eye, with muscles of steel hardened athletes every inch, the god of battle never looked upon a fairer host. They were the third generation of pioneers. 'The uncleared forest, the unbroken soil,
'The iron bark that turned the lumberer's ax,
'The rapid that overbears the boatmans toil,
'The ambushed Indian and the prowling bear,
'Such were the needs that helped their youth to train.'

"Men such as these do not play at war. Those who enlisted for a holiday found it a holocaust.

"The conflict was cruel. Civil war cannot but be cruel. It sets brother against brother. In border states such as Kentucky, Tennessee and Missouri, brothers parted, one to go south and the other north. My grandmother told four of her sons good bye. Two served under the stars and bars and two under the stars and stripes. She heard from her doors the thunder of the guns of Fort Donalson. Two of her boys were behind its walls and two outside. What did she pray those nights as she knelt by the bed upon which she had borne her sons? Only the angel who keeps earth's secrets can tell. What did she suffer those nights as she listened to the distant roar? Only the heart of the Father knows. When the war was over and two of her sons came home, the sod was green over a mound on the hillside. They suffer most who stand and

ST. LOUIS MIDDLE

POSTOFFICE FIGHT WORRIES MISSOURI SENATORS.

SENATOR STONE IS BUSY

Chairman of Important Sub-Committee Dealing With Tariff—Governorship Candidates Grooming Themselves.

By W. C. Van Cleve.

Washington, D. C., May 22.—The house of representatives has been marking time for the past week while the senate committee on finance is getting the tariff bill ready to report to the senate. According to the expectations of those in charge of the work this will be about June 5. The senate committee will recommend a good many amendments to the house bill, some of them making important changes.

One change that has been suggested will be to put live stock and meats and grains and their manufactured products on the same basis. The house bill makes cattle, sheep, wheat and oats, for instance, subject to duty, while fresh and cured meats, flour and oatmeal are admitted free. The senate committee proposes, according to the present program, to either make all subject to duty or place all on the free list.

Senator Stone is one of the busiest men in the senate. He is chairman of a subcommittee that has in charge five of the important schedules of the tariff bill. These are the schedules covering earthenware and glassware, metals, wools and woolens, silks and the free list. The committee has been working late into each night, but manages to give a little time each day to the throngs that beset his office rooms. It is the intention of the Democratic senators to push the bill through the senate with all possible dispatch, but the Republicans are lining up for a stiff fight and the Democratic margin is very narrow, so there are few who will predict its passage through that body before August first.

The St. Louis postoffice has furnished its share of annoyance to the Missouri senators. The fight seems to have developed a peculiar mix-up. Senator Reed gave his hearty endorsement to Colin Selph, president of a Democratic club and Senator Stone joined in the endorsement. David R. Francis and Rolla Wells are understood to be behind Mr. Scanlon, a wealthy gentleman who wants the office for pastime. Joseph W. Folk has endorsed a shrewd business man named Lewis, and ex-Congressman Pat Gill has the endorsement of Mr. Igoe, the Democratic member of Congress from St. Louis, most if not all the Missouri representatives and many party workers. Mr. Selph's friends declare an unfair fight has been made on him and that he will be appointed, but some of the other candidates are working hard and are equally confident. Both Selph and Gill have been here during the past week pushing their claims.

It is possible that this congress will furnish three candidates in the race for the Democratic nomination for governor in Missouri three years hence. Representative Lloyd of the first district has already enjoyed a long service in the house and would not be averse to finishng off at Jefferson City. He was urged by many friends to run last year, but decided not to do so. Representative Borland of Kansas City, a member of the appropriations committee, is said to have his eye on the governorship, and Representative Joe Russell of Charleston, who gave much attention during last session to pension legislation, is said to be preparing to take offices in the new capitol. Then there is Uncle Dorsey Shackleford, he of good roads fame. It will be well to keep an eye on him.

Two Missourians, Ernest Martin of Marshall and L. H. Musgrave of Ash Grave, have organized the "Democratic Fair Play Association." Its purpose is to reform the civil service, secure a segregation of the races in the departments and incidentally jar loose some jobs for the Democratic faithful. There are more than twenty-two thousand colored men and women employed by the government, according to figures produced, under civil service and drawing aggregate annual salaries of more than twelve million dollars. Many complaints have been made because large numbers of white ladies are compelled to work with negro bosses and divison chiefs and are compelled to take dictation from them and be constantly under their supervision.

White house plums are dropping very slowly. So far they are hardly keeping up with the deaths and resignations. It may be that they won't ripen until the tariff pudding is baked.

DEATH OF MRS. J. T. HAYS.

Passed Away Sunday Evening After Seven Months of Suffering—Funeral Wednesday.

After seven months of patient suffering from heart trouble with complications, Mrs. James T. Hays of Prather avenue passed away Sunday evening at 7:45 o'clock.

The funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First M. E. church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Gilbert S. Cox.

Mrs. Hays was taken ill the 10th of last October while visiting her daughter, Mrs. N. E. Dawson, who lived at Sheridan at that time. She became better and while visiting another daughter, Mrs. Z. Rolla Alexander, north of Maryville, during Christmas week, she was taken critically ill on December 26. She was able to be brought home the 4th of January, but has been in a critical condition most of the time since and has been a great sufferer. She obtained relief from her pain many times from the singing of sacred songs that she loved, sung to her by members of the family or friends who came to sing for her, and through the ministry of song she has known many a happy hour that could not have otherwise been possible. She was a devout Christian woman and had been a member of the Methodist church since young womanhood.

Mrs. Hays' maiden name was Laura Aurelia Young. She was born December 7, 1844, in Hillsboro, High and county, Ohio, the daughter of Milton Madison and Mary Jane Young. She was the oldest of six children, two of whom are living, William Young of West Point, Calif., and Mrs. Kate Cheney of Osceola, Mo. Another sister, Mrs. Lee D. Bell of Neosha, Mo., who was well known in Maryville, died in 1908.

Mrs. Hays came to Nodaway county with her widowed mother and her family in 1866. On the 14th of February, 1868, she was married to John Thomas Hays, and they settled at once on his farm four miles west of Skidmore, where they lived until they moved to Maryville twenty years ago. Ten children were born to them, seven of whom are living and are Mrs. W. A. Argo, Milton R. Hays, Pearl C. Hays and Mrs. N. E. Dawson of near Skidmore; Eddie C. Hays and James T. Hays, Jr., of Mullin, Neb., and Mrs. Z. Rolla Alexander of Maryville. A daughter, Hermione Hays, died at the age of 18 in 1897. Two other children died in infancy.

Mrs. Hays' mother, Mrs. Mary J. Young, after ten years of widowhood, married the late Samuel Hull of Maryville who was the grandfather of Herman W. Hull and Mrs. Flora Quinn of Maryville.

AN AUTO ACCIDENT.

In Going Around Corner, Automobile Turned Over, But No One Was Hurt.

No one was hurt in an automobile accident which occured Saturday night about three miles southwest of the city near the Bell Grove school house, but the car was badly damaged. E. L. Charles was driving the car and did not notice the turn in the road near the school house until he was right upon it, and then turning, upset the car and caused it to turn completely over on its wheels again. One of the occupants of the car, Earl Charles, was thrown out of the car, while the two other occupants remained and were not injured. It was certainly a narrow escape for the occupants of the car. The damage to the car consisted of breaking the fenders, the lights, the windshield, the steering wheel and the spokes in the right back wheel being all knocked out and the wheel coming off.

HOME COMING DAY.

The Harmony Church to Have Big Time on Sunday, June 8—Program Will Be Announced Later.

The home coming day of the Harmony church, east of town, will take place on Sunday, June 8 and all former residents of that community and attendants of that church are invited to attend the celebration. At noon, a big basket dinner will be served and speakers will be secured. The program for the day will be announced later.

Iowa Guests Leave.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Davis of Alvord, Ia., who have been spending several days in Maryville with Mr. Davis' father, George D. Davis, and sister, Miss Ruth Davis, left for Des Moines Monday, where they will be until Thursday, while Mr. Davis attends the Iowa State Bankers' meeting, which will be held Tuesday and Wednesday. Mr. Davis is president of the National bank of Alvord.

Mrs. C. P. Ingerson and her sister, Miss Maybird Parrish, vsited at Conception Junction over Sunday at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Gabe Purcell and family.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dittamore, living east of Ravenwood, announce the birth of a daughter, Friday, May 22.

WORK OF LIFETIME

"A SUM IN ADDITION" IS A BIG MAN'S JOB.

A BIG CROWD HEAR IT

Reverend Harkness Gave the Best Problem Yet to the High School Graduating Class.

The baccalaureate services for the graduating class of the Maryville high school, held in the First Christian church Sunday night, witnessed the largest crowd in attendance yet at a like service. Many were unable to gain entrance. Everyone noticed the beautiful appearance of the interior of the church, which is still undergoing improvement. The walls of the entire church interior have been newly frescoed, in exquisite colors and shades of olive green, gold and browns, and all looks like a brand new church building.

The invocation was given by Rev. Gilbert S. Cox, the scripture lesson by Rev. Claude J. Miller, and the prayer led by Rev. J. D. Randolph, after the graduating class, looking so charming and handsome in their gray caps and gowns, had been ushered to their seats by Mr. Edward Gray of the mid-winter class of 1912-13.

Rev. S. D. Harkness of the First Presbyterian church preached the sermon on the subject, "A Sum in Addition," from the text found in II Peter, 6-7-8: "Add to your faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge temperence, and to temperence patience, and to patience godliness, and to godliness brotherly kindness, and to brotherly kindness love."

Reverend Harkness said he hoped the class would not consider it beneath its dignity to consider the sum in addition he wished to present to them, for the working of it would mean more to each one than any sum in mathematics that would confront them in college or university, for there was none equal to it anywhere. His words burned into the hearts of all who heard, for it was a message answering the great needs of today of which Macterlink says, "Never was there a time in any age of the world's history when the pressure of the soul was so strong."

"ANGEL DOCTOR" DEAD.

New York Doctor Made Dear to Maryville People By Lecture Course Speaker.

Maryville people who heard the lecture of Dr. John Gray at the First M. E. church during the State Normal lecture course, will be interested in the account of the death of "the angel doctor" of New York City, of whom Dr. Gray spoke frequently, when he told of his experiences while slumming for three months to see how "the other half of the world" lives.

"The angel doctor's" death occurred on Thursday and the telegraphic announcement of it is as follows:

The lower east side is in mourning, for the "angel doctor" is dead. Thirty years ago he came to Little Hungary and since that time had endeared himself to the poor of the district by administering to their ills and steadfastly refusing pay. Few of his neighbors knew more of him than that, but when he died in his barren room yesterday, they hastened out to spend their pennies for candles. They marched up the narrow stair by twos and threes and stood in awe about the blanket-covered figure.

The "angel doctor's" real name was Dr. Karoly. He was born in Hungary sixty years ago and came to this country in 1881. Soon after he arrived here he changed his name, calling himself Dr. Frank Charles. He practiced on the Pacific coast and in Chicago for a time and in 1883 settled on the east side. He is said to have been able to speak seventeen languages and was a profund student of medicine. Yesterday he was chatting with a friend when suddenly he started from his chair.

"Joe, I'm going; before it's too late, I want to tell you the great secret of my—"

That is as far as he got, for he fell forward dead.

Mrs. Ella Brewer of Olathe, Kan., left for her home Monday morning after a short visit with her son, A. A. Brewer and family. Mrs. Brewer stopped in Maryville on her way home from a visit in Chicago with her daughter.

Mrs. Donald Cady of St. Joseph came Saturday for a visit with her mother, Mrs. C. P. Denny and family.

THE BAPTIST TEAM WON.

Defeated the Presbyterians by a Score of 12 to 7—Was the First Game of the League.

The First game of the Sunday School baseball league was played Saturday afternoon at the Normal park and the Baptist team defeated the Presbyterians by a score of 12 to 7. The game was seven innings.

The Baptist team was composed of only seven players, while the Presbyterians had the full nine. Conley pitched for the Baptists and Vandersloot opposed him. Conley had 13 strike-outs to his credit and Vandersloot only 3. Van allowed eight free passes.

The lineup follows:

Baptist—Wiles, c; Conley, p; Roy David, 3b; Cook, fielder; Westbrook, 2b; Quinn, 1b; Anderson, ss.

Presbyterian—K. Van Cleve, 3b; H. Sawyers, ss; Murray, 1b; Vandersloot, p; Fred Hutchison, c; Cottrill, 2b; Neff, rf; Barr, cf; Gillam, lf.

There was a fair sized crowd at the game and the interest was good. V. I. Moore and Emmett Scott were the umpires.

The game of the First M. E. team and the Buchanan Street Methodist team which was postponed Saturday was being played this afternoon at the Normal park.

DEATH OF A. A. REESE.

Pioneer Elmo Resident Died Sunday Morning and Was Buried Sunday Afternoon.

A. A. Reese died at his home in Elmo on Sunday morning at 7 o'clock after a few weeks illness of pneumonia. He was also under quarantine for smallpox, as he had that disease in a light form. No funeral services were held and the remains were buried in the Dawson graveyard. No services were held on account of the smallpox quarantine.

Mr. Reese was born in Fountain county, Ind., on June 23, 1844. He had been a resident of the Elmo vicinity about 32 years. He first settled in Dawson and had a drug store there for six years and then moved to Elmo and continued the drug business at that town for 18 years. For the past ten years, he was in the dry goods business at Elmo.

Mr. Reese was married twice, his first wife dying in 1888. Her maiden name was Jane Mathews. There are four children surviving, who are Mrs. Flora Anderson, Will, Donnie and Harlan Reese, all at Elmo. The second time, he married Miss Emily Radford, who survives with the following children: Nina, Mrs. Minnie Anderson, Roy Eva and Raymond Reese, all at Elmo. He was a member of the A. F. & A. M. lodge of Elmo.

THE NORMAL TEAM WON.

Defeated the Amity College Team Saturday at Amity by Score of 3 to 2.

The Normal baseball team won the game played Saturday at Amity with the college team of that place. The score was 3 to 2. Wilson pitched for the Normal and Lynch for Amity. The Normal made their three scores in the first inning.

The game Saturday finished the ball season for the Normal. They did not win many games. L. M. Eek was in charge of the ball team on their trip to Tarkio, Peru, Nebr., and Amity.

C. D. Hocker of Guilford was a business visitor in Maryville Saturday.

WOOD AND ATTEAUX.

They Are Charged With Complicitiy In Lawrence Dynamite Planting Case.

Photos by American Press Association.

John J. Breen's testimony was expected to be damaging to William M. Wood (top), president of the American Woolen company, and Frederick E. Atteaux, a Boston manufacturer, who are accused of complicity in "planting" dynamite to discredit strikers in Lawrence, Mass. Breen said he was hired by Atteaux to "plant" the explosive, but did not implicate Wood.

WANT IOWA ROAD

NODAWAY COUNTY MEN COME WITH IOWA MEN.

IOWA TO KEEP IN SHAPE

If Commission Will Select Route the Iowa End, It is Promised, Will Be Kept Up.

A large delegation from Burlington Junction, Clearmont, Braddyville and Clarinda was in the city Monday afternoon and appeared before the county highway commission to present their claims for the state line road. Two of the three commissioners of Page county, Wm. Jeffrey and Frank Hensleigh, and Isaac Taggart, county highway engineer, were in the party and urged the commission to select the road to Burlington Junction, then to Clearmont to the state line as the state road. They promised that they would keep the road on the Iowa side in fine shape. At the present time, Page county is keeping up the road from Clarinda to Braddyville and the road is said to be best road around here anywhere.

The party invited the members of the commission here to accompany them on their return trip home.

The following were the members in the party:

Clarinda—Frank D. Hensleigh, E. G. Day, William Orr, A. B. Loranz, J. R. Lee, Ed F. Rose, H. E. Parslow, Ed Driftmier, Forney Ammons, H. H. Scott, J. Q. LEAVING FOR TEXAS.

Dr. Taylor and Family Started for Their Southern Home This Afternoon.

Prof. and Mrs. H. K. Taylor, Miss Hattie Mae and Jack Taylor, left Maryville Monday evening for their new home in Arlington, Texas. They stopped at St. Joseph Monday evening for a few days' visit with Mrs. Taylor's sister, Mrs. L. C. Gabbert, and family. They will make another stop at Excelsior Springs for Professor Taylor's benfit. It is sincerely regretted by Professor Taylor's friends that he was unable to meet them before leaving for his new home. He is suffering from a severe case of nervous prostration and his physicians say it will be some time before he will be able for work. The good wishes of Maryville people are with Professor Taylor and his family. They have made numerous friends by their uniform courtesy and kindness to everyone.

President and Mrs. Richardson took possession of the Normal residence on Saturday and will be at home in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lierley of Conception Junction spent Sunday and Monday at Gilman City wth Mr. Lierley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Lierley.

Miss Marie Jones arrived from Spickard, Mo., Saturday where she appeared in concert Friday night, and visited over Sunday with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Jones.

Mrs. O. W. Swinford and her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Sheil, returned Saturday from a short visit at Neosha Falls, Mo., with their daughter and sister, Mrs. J. A. Carter.

Mrs. W. H. Trueblood and daughter of Kansas City, who are visiting here, went to Hopkins Saturday to visit Mrs. Trueblood's cousin, Ora Burch and family.

Mrs. W. M. Hall and son Wilbur of Pickering were Maryville visitors Saturday.

TREATMENT FOR FIRE BLIGHT.

Amputation and Cauterization Are Heroic Measures That Are Effective.

J. C. Whitten of the Agricultural Experiment Station at Columbia writes as follows on the fire blight of the apple:

"Recently a disease has been spreading through the apple orchards of Missouri killing much of the newly set fruit and many of the young growing shoots of the trees. This disease is fire blight. It attacks the pear as well as the apple and quince. It develops to a serious degree almost every year in pears. It rarely causes as much injury in apples as it is doing this season.

"It is caused by a bacterial parasite which develops in the growing layer of the tree, causing the tissues to die as seen in the blighting orchards at the present time.

There is no other known preventive than cutting out and burning the blighted parts. It is now too late to accomplish much by cutting out the blighted parts in apple trees, as in the apple it has already run its course for this season. It continues to live in the pear, however, throughout the year. Continue to cut out the blighted parts from pear trees through the remainder of the season.

"The best time to cut out blight is in late winter or early spring, just before the blossoming season. It winters over mostly in pears, though occasionally in a few apples like Jonathan and Yellow Transparent. While the blight now shows in millions of blighted places on the trunks it will winter over only in a few places here and there in the trunk, main limbs or occasionally in the twigs. In early spring these winter pockets of blight may be seen in blistered areas on the bark, which give off honey-like exudations. Insects feed on these honey-like masses oozing from winter blight pockets. This honey-like mass is full of germs of the disease which are carried by the insects to the blossoms and growing points in spring. If these winter pockets can be cut out, and the wounds painted no blight germs will be left and the disease will not spread during the spring and early summer. If a blight pocket here and there is overlooked near the blossoming time, the disease will spread from it to the flower clusters and growing twigs. These first blighted parts in the flower clusters and new twigs put out honey-like exudations which stand in little beads on the young twigs, leaf stems or young fruit stems. Could these have been cut out just after the blossoming period this year, the present enormous spread of blight could have been prevented. It would be well to keep this point in mind next spring wherever blight is serious this year.

"Treatment with salt, calomel, iron and other things have been recommended for preventing blight. None of these, except cutting out the blight, is of any use. The reason why salt or iron stirred into the soil under a blighting tree or calomel injected under its bark seems to check the blight is because the spring blight runs its course so quickly that by the time it is observed and the alleged remedy applied, the blight is usually ready to stop of its own accord."

SURELY BANISHES CATARRH.

Where there's catarrh there's thousands of catarrh germs. You can't get rid of catarrh unless you kill these germs.

You can't kill them with stomach medicine or sprays because they can't get where germs are.

You can kill these germs with Booth's HYMOEI, a penetrating, antiseptic, balsamic air that you breathe a few times a day directly over the raw, sore, germ infested membrane. It does not contain morphine or any habit forming drug.

For catarrh, corup coughs, and colds. HYOMEI is sold on money back plan by Orear-Henry Drug Co. Complete outfit, $1.00. Extra bottles of Booth's HYMOEI if afterwards needed, only 50 cents. Just breathe it—no stomach dosing.—Advertisement.

Miss Ruth Gilmore of Carl Junction, Mo., arrived in Maryville Saturday to attend the Normal.

Miss Mollie Cooke went to Agency, Mo., Saturday evening on account of the illness of her brother, T. W. Cooke.

Misses Vernie Clemmons, Florence and Carrie Newcomer went to their homes at Guilford Saturday for an over Sunday visit with home folks.

Mrs. H. A. Byers was called to St. Joseph Saturday evening on account of the illness of her two little grandchildren, Karleen and Sidney Conley, children of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Conley, formerly of this city.

Mrs. W. M. Shelton and son, Dr. Will Shelton of St. Joseph, and Mrs. Robert Limerick of Savannah, returned home Saturday evening, having been called to the funeral services for W. S. Trewett, the brother-in-law of Mrs. Shelton and Mrs. Limerick.

Came for Their Car.

Mr. Philip Strop and his sister, Miss Lillian Strop, of St. Joseph, came to Maryville Saturday noon and visted a short time with their relatives, the families of J. F. Montgomery and G. B. Holmes. They returned home in the evening with their car that was disabled while they were attending the track meet a few weeks ago and had been here ever since waiting for the weather and an opportune time to appear at one time for bringing it home.

HUNDRED YEAR CLUBS.

Believe Life May Be Prolonged.

Men who are devoting their lives to the study of longevity believe that in days to come a man of ninety will be in his prime, and old age will begin long past a hundred years.

Scientists have proved that the simple life, temperate habits, exercise, and an active mind are essential to a long and happy life.

When the blood gets thin and sluggish and creeps lazily through the veins, and the arteries begin to harden, there is nothing that will enrich the blood, improve the circulation and restore strength to every back-sliding organ on the body so quickly as our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol. Here is proof.

Mrs. Michael Bloom of Lewiston, Pa., at 83 years of age was so weak she had to be wheeled around in an invalid's chair—she writes that after taking a few bottles of Vinol she could take long walks and do her housework. That shows how Vinol strengthens old people.

Try Vinol on our guarantee that it will do you good or cost you nothing. —Orear-Henry Drug Co., Maryville, Mo.—Advertisement.

Mrs. Jesse Perdew of Lyons, Kan., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. John Snapp, left for her home Monday morning. Mrs. Perdew will stop at Hutchison, Kan., to visit her son, Guy E. Perdew. She makes her home with her son, Grover G. Perdew, and his wife at Lyons.

Mrs. Jessie Bowers of Conway, Ia., arrived Saturday evening to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Cole, living five miles northeast of Maryville.

For Miss Taylor.

Miss Vera Tilson entertained the girls of the Hum Drum club at her home Saturday afternoon with a sewing party and pink and white luncheon, complimentary to Miss Hattie Mae Taylor.

Played Progressive Dominoes.

Mrs. Gallatin Craig and Mrs. O. L. Holmes entertained the members of the Penelope club and their husbands and their friends Friday evening at Mrs. Craig's home with a progressive domino party and luncheon. Assisting the hostesses were Miss Laura Craig, Miss Laurinda Craig, Messrs. Lieber and Harry Holmes, Byron and John Costello. The other guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Braniger, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ford, Mrs. Omar Catterson, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Johnson, Mrs. N. F. Hooper, Mrs. Lois Long, Mr. and Mrs. John Price and daughter, Matie, Mr. and Mrs. Herron, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ed Costello, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Melvin, Mrs. Frank Bolin, Mrs. Anna Frankum, Mrs. L. L. Holbrook, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Van Steenbergh, Mrs. G. A. Van Steenbergh, Mr. and Mrs. John Murrin, Miss Charlotte Murrin, Miss Bess DeArmond, Charles McNeal and O. L. Holmes.

The Last Class Meeting.

The senior class of the Parnell high school held its farewell meeting Sunday afternoon with Miss Matie Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Evans. This was the class which graduated the night of May 16, and is the first class from the new school building, built last year. It is known as the "High Flying Class," for it has two martins and a bird among its four boys and two girls, Miss Elma Martin, Miss Lottie Byrd and Mr. Martin B. Farrell, while the other members of the class are Miss Marguerite Gaynor, W. Troy Bloomfield and Miss Matie Evans. Miss Evans is the youngest student that has been graduated from the Parnell schools, as she is not yet fifteen years old. She also won the scholarship offered by the Chillicothe Normal. The graduating exercises were held in the M. E. church, which was beautifully decked in potted plants and the class colors, pink and white. Superintendent J. A. Whiteford of the St. Joseph public schools delivered the class address.

Raised Seventy-Five Dollars.

The women of the First Baptist church held a delightful all-day session Friday at the church, which is the first of the series of such meetings they will hold within the coming months for the purpose of raising a pledge of $300 they have made for the church budget. The day was spent in tacking comforts and making plans for the future work. At 12 o'clock an elaborate buffet luncheon was served on the lawn. In the afternoon an informal program preceded by devotional services led by Mrs. H. W. Hull was given. Several readings were given by Miss Mabel Miller and Esther Gile. After this each one laid a silver dollar on the plate and related her experience in earning it. When the last experience was in, there was $75 of their pledge paid. At 6 o'clock, another buffet luncheon was served to those who remained for the social given in the evening for the young people. During the evening, Miss Mabel Miller gave several other readings, after which ice cream and cake were served. As Friday's experience meeting proved so successful, the women of the church have decided to raise their money in this way rather than by maintaining a dining hall at the chautauqua this summer. The next all-day meeting will be held about the first of September at the home of Mrs. Wm. Everhart.

Bride Visiting Her Parents.

Mrs. Glade Bradley of Grand Island, Neb., formerly Miss Helen Ford, arrived in Maryville Saturday night on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ford, 128 South Main street, and her sister, Mrs. Joseph Jackson, Jr. This is Mrs. Bradley's first visit home since her marriage last January.

P. E. O. Social Meeting.

Mrs. J. C. Allender entertained the P. E. O. chapter at dominoes Saturday afternoon. oFur tables were arranged for the games and the favor went to Mrs. Fred Kurtz. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. D. Richey and Miss Mabel Todd, served refreshments following the game. The chapter's delegates, Mrs. J. D. Richey and Miss Nelle Hudson, will leave next week for the State Grand Chapter convention at Shelbina, and the next meeting of the local chapter will be held shortly after their return.

Mrs. Clara Bradley, grand president of the ladies' auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, says that transportation companies may soon be employing women as engineers, conductors and even as trainmen.

Robert Collett of Springfield, Mo., was elected president of the International Railway Fuel association. Other officials chosen were: A. C. Buell of Omaha and D. H. Sebastian of Chicago, vice presidents, and C. G. Hall of Chicago, secretary-treasurer.

UNITY WAITS ON UNION SEMINARY

Pan-Presbyterianism Deferred till School Question is Settled.

Atlanta, Ga., May 26.—Now that the four general assemblies have concluded their work the question comes, How far toward the desired goal of pan-Presbyterianism has the Atlanta project advanced the church?

In the first place, it should be said, that complete unity was not looked for at these simultaneous conventions. Definite steps toward unity were looked for and taken. In a word, this is the concrete result: The Southern and United Presbyterians appointed committees to work out a basis of union to be reported to their respective assemblies a year hence for action; the Northern and Reformed Presbyterians cordially approved the project of unity and recorded their intentions to co-operate with the others practically as soon as certain details can be arranged.

The Southern church, which is the original proponent of pan-Presbyterianism, plainly states that while it desires ultimate union with all, the time is not yet ripe for merging with the Northern brethren. The delay is not occasioned by any sectionalism, however; it is the same old question of Union seminary.

"Settle that properly and definitely," say both Southern and United Presbyterians, "and then we will talk unity with you."

Forty Perish When Nevada Sinks.

London, May 26.—A dispatch from Smyrna to Lloyds says that forty persons were drowned by the sinking of the steamer Nevada, which struck the mines in the Gulf of Smyrna.

CONDENSED NEWS

Subpoenas were issued for five Chicago packers to appear as witnesses before the vice and minimum wage commission of the state senate, which resumed its hearing at Chicago.

Henry Orlofsky, a pawnbroker, wanted in Clovis, N. M., for the alleged theft of jewelry valued at $3,000, jumped from a moving Southern Pacific train and escaped from Sheriff Moore.

"Most of the Americans in Porto Rico live ungodly lives, furnishing the worst of moral example to the natives," declared Miss Laura Dresser, a Baptist missionary of Porto Rico, to the Baptist convention at Detroit.

Stephen J. Stilwell, state senator, recently exonerated by the New York state senate of charges of bribery, was found guilty of bribery by a jury. The maxumum penalty for the crime is ten years' imprisonment and $500 fine.

THERE'S ONE FLAG

wait. 'Victory,' said the Duke of Wellington 'is the greatest tragedy in the world except defeat.'

"Those who fear the future of the nation would do well to read the history of the past. Never did men die more grandly than the Americans who gave up their lives on the battle fields from 1861 to 1865. As I read of their heroism, my heart swells with pride that I am an American. I rejoice that there is now neither puritan nor cavalier, but that out of the suffering of civil conflict has been born a new Americanism that is not sectional but national. The evil passions of the war are smouldering out. The stainless purity of the manhood of Lee and Lincoln are the priceless heritage of the whole nation, North and South. 'We all march one way,' Lincoln said in his first inaugural address; 'we are not enemies but friends. We must not be enemies. Though pasion may have strained, it must not break the bonds of our affection. The mystic cords of memory stretching from every battle field and patriot grave, to every living heart and hearthstone all over this broad land, will yet swell the chorus of the union, when touched as they surely will be by the better angels of our nature.' Before the war clouds had all been swept away, the tongue that uttered these deathless words was forever silenced. The dark days of reconstruction came on. A reconstruction that did more to imbitter the South than all that had gone before. The South had been forced back into the Union, but at heart was more bitterly hostile to it than when she fired upon the flag at Fort Sumter. But a better day was dawning. The troops were withdrawn and the carpetbagger banished. Relieved from her fear of negro dominion, the South took stock and begun to rebuild her shattered fortunes. The 'mystic cords of memory stirred' Henry W. Grady, the son of a Confederate verteran and a citizen of Georgia, in 1886, stood before the New England club and begun an epoch marking speech with the words, 'There was a South of slavery and secession—that South is dead. There is a South of union and freedom—that South, thank God, is living, breathing and growing every hour.'

"My friends, I am southern born and southern reared. If I know those with whom my youth was spent, there is but one flag in the South, and that flag is the Stars and Stripes. We speak the name of Lee tenderly, reverently. Our hearts thrill when the band plays 'Dixie.' Our eyes grow dim and we are silent when the bent form with the empty sleeve passes our window, but there is only one flag in the South and that flag is the Stars and Stripes."

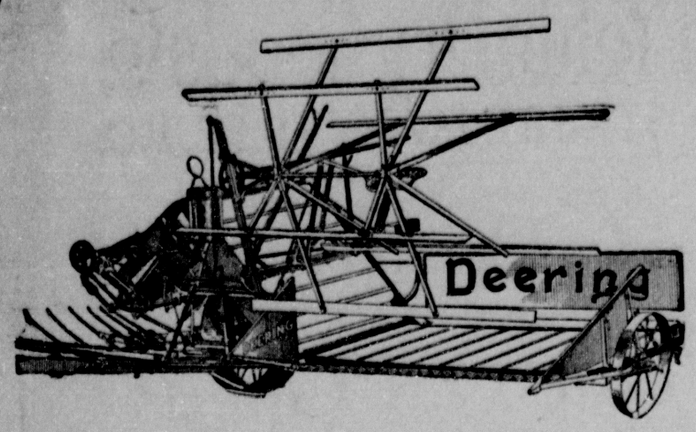
Why I Should Use a Deering



The Deering was the first twine binder with a knoter of real practical value, which has been in use for thirty years.

The Deering was the pioneer binder in the use of ball and roller bearings, which makes it the lightest draft of any make.

The shape of the breast plate prevents choking, which means a saving of time and power.

A reliable butt adjuster, either board or canvass.

Levers close to driver. Easy to operate and adjust to various conditions. All in front instead of the rear.

A practical elevator canvas tightener.

Light, strong and durable reel.

An effective platform canvas stretcher.

Cuts high stubble or close to the ground.

Friction reel safety device prevents breakage.

Positive gear-drive wheel, no chains.

Hot riveted main frames reinforced with famous K brace; others coming to it.

The lightest and strongest main wheel built. Note strengthening groove.

A very practical tongue truck on all sizes.

High flanges on wheels prevent side draft.

A long, step binder deck, which assures rapid work.

A light, strong, simple bundle carrier, easy to operate. The original bevel gear binding attachment.

Satisfied owners are our best reference. Let us furnish you a list, and see for yourself.

MANSLAUGHTER FOR PELKEY

Northwest Police Prefer This Charge at Calgary.

HEART IN GOOD CONDITION.

Post Mortem Examination of Dead Fighter Reveals His Neck Was Dislocated — Manslaughter Charge Is Preferred Against Pelkey.

Calgary, May 26.—Arthur Pelkey, from whose stiff right hook near the heart Luther McCarty fell dead in the ring at the Burns arena in Calgary, will face a charge of manslaughter in the police court. The Royal Northwest mounted police completed the necessary papers in the charge placed against him.

A dislocated neck caused the death of McCarty during his fight with Pelkey, according to information given out, following an autopsy conducted by Dr. Mochier at the request of Coroner Costello.

It was stated by the physicians that death undoubtedly had been caused by the dislocated neck and that the heart was found to be sound. A clot of blood on the brain aided in convincing the physicians that death was not due to the blow near the heart.

Shortly after the contest began, McCarty received a sharp jab to the jaw, which sent his head back quickly. It did not appear to have caused any pain and he was afterward on his feet for half a minute. The left to the jaw was followed by Pelkey with a right to the heart region, which caused the spectators to believe the latter blow had brought the knockout, but the physicians are of the opinion that the dislocation of the neck was not sustained in the fall which followed. He fell slowly and did not strike his head.

Just before the death of McCarty was announced, it developed, Pelkey had slipped into his street clothes at the request of this trainers and was driven to his hotel in an automobile. It was not until he had washed and dressed that he learned of McCarty's death. He started from the hotel when officers arrived and took him into custody.

An autopsy was held over the dead fighter's body. The result is withheld pending the inquest.

Numerous doubts were expressed as to the actual cause of death. It did not seem as if there was sufficient force behond the blow to the heart to cause death, several have declared. Pelkey said he did not believe that his punch actually landed near the heart.

It was rumored that McCarty had suffered from a slight weakness of the heart and this, in conjunction with the extreme excitement and the landing of the punch, are blamed for his death.

McCarty's body will be shipped to his birthplace at Hastings, Neb.

Will Put Lid On.

The fatal ending will have the effect of putting the lid down tight on boxing bouts in western Canada.

Betting on the contest was lively at two to one with Pelkey holding out for ten rounds, while McCarty was five to one favorite for the decision. It was generally supposed that Pelkey could not assimilate enough science in three weeks to give him a chance with McCarty. Pelkey showed a great deal of improvement over his former appearance. In the bout he had exhibited better judgment of distance than his opponent and also put more steam into his blows.

It was stated unofficially that as soon as the responsibilities for McCarty's death have been placed, Pelkey will go south to meet Gunboat Smith.

TO FIX BLAME FOR PIER DISASTER

Inquiry at Long Beach Where Thirty-five Lost Lives.

DEATH LIST IS GROWING.

Several of the Injured Are Not Expected to Survive—Damage Suits Aggregating Million Dollars Will Follow—Victims Are Chiefly Women.

Long Beach, Cal., May 26.—Prospective damage suits, aggregating probably $1,000,000 or more, and a grand jury investigation engaged the attention of city officials as the most imminent outcome of the disaster when thirty-five persons lost their lives in the collapse of a portion of the municipal pier just after the close of the British Empire day pageant.

The list of dead was added to by the death of Mrs. E. C. Bush, seventy years old, who succumbed to her injuries. The list is expected to be further increased by the death of Miss Marguerite Reed, aged twelve, of Long Beach, whose back was broken, and of W. C. Cooper of Pasadena, Cal., one of the two veterans of the Crimean war, who were in the van of the Empire Day parade. Rectification of errors made in the list of dead brought out the following names:

Miss Frances Harriett Newell of Kenosha, Wis.; Mrs. Mollie Gates of Oak Park, Ill.; Miss Lilly M. Holmes of Denver, Ernest G. Eales and wife of Los Angeles, Mrs. M. P. McDonald of Compton, Cal.

Too weak to uphold the burden of nearly 10,000 human beings assembled for the festivities of British "Empire day," the land end of the big double decked municipal pier in front of the city auditorium at Long Beach, Cal., collapsed. Hundreds of persons on the top deck were plunged down on the heads of other hundreds crowded on the second deck. The lower deck then gave way and all were dropped down a chute of shattered woodwork to the tide-washed sands twenty-five feet below.

Thirty-three persons, mostly women, were killed by the shivered timbers or crushed to death by falling bodies of companions and friends. Fifty more were seriously injured, while hysteria and paralyzing fright disabled scores of others.

The victims were subjects or former subjects of Great Britain, in southern California.

ROOSEVELT AT MARQUETTE

Will Push His Libel Case Against an Editor.

Marquette, Mich., May 26.—Theodore Roosevelt arrived here to prosecute his libel suit against George A. Newett, publisher of the Iron Ore at Ishpeming. The suit resulted from the publication during the last presidential campaign of an article in the Iron Ore, in which a statement was made that Colonel Roosevelt was untruthful, was given to the use of profanity and used intoxicants to excess.

He will be his own personal witness. A number of men of national reputation will testify in Colonel Roosevelt's behalf.

Depositions to be submitted have been taken from former Surgeon General Rixey of the United States navy, Admiral Dewey, Albert Shaw, editor of the Review of Reviews, and many others. Declarations as to Colonel Roosevelt's habits have been obtained from men residing at the principal cities visited by him during the last campaign.

Colonel Roosevelt has been informed that Mr. Newett's attorneys have been active in gathering depositions in an attempt to prove justification for the publication of the articles.

MEETING TO BE CALLED

National Committee Will Meet Sixty Days After Congress Quits.

Washington, May 26.—Leaders of the Republican party—members of the executive committee of the national committee from twelve states—gathered here and laid preliminary plans for the congressional campaign of 1914 and the national political battle of two years later, to regain control of congress and possession of the White House.

As a result the Republican national committee will meet sixty days after the adjournment of the extra session of congress and an extraordinary Republican national convention is expected not later than a year hence. Changes in the basis of representation in national conventions and reforms of methods of party procedure, which have been subject to criticism, will be disposed of through these agencies. Close co-operation between the national committee and the congressional campaign committee was agreed upon.

SUNDRY CIVIL BILL COMES UP TO WILSON

Measure Likely to Reach President for Action This Week.

Washington, May 26.—President Wilson may have actually before him this week for his approval or rejection the much-buffeted $117,000,000 sundry civil appropriation bill, which includes the provision exempting labor unions and farmers' organizations from prosecution through funds appointed through enforcement of the Sherman anti-trust law.

What the president will do with the measure because of the exemption clause, which caused former President Taft to veto it, is engaging country-wide attention.

The executive's office has been flooded with letters and petitions regarding the measure, some urging him in emphatic language to veto it because of the exemption clause and others appealing to him to give it his approval.

While the president is deliberating the house and senate conferees have been marking time. The tariff situation will reach an interesting period this week when the senate finance subcommittees get down to the actual work of writing their revisions of the Underwood bill.

THERE'S ONE FLAG

SOUTHERN PREACHER TALKED TO NORTHERN MEN.

TIMESOFTENSALLHURTS

Memorial Sermon By Rev. Randolph To a Large Audience in Christian Church.

The annual memorial sermon under the auspices of the Sedgwick Post No. 21, G. A. R. and the Women's Relief Corps was heard Sunday afternoon at the First Christian church by a large audience. The members of these two bodies agreed that they have not received a more patriotic sermon than that given by Rev. J. D. Randolph of the Buchanan Street Methodist church, who was the speaker.

A quartet composed of Mrs. F. P. Robinson, Miss Phylis Sayler, W. E. Goforth and H. J. Becker sang "There is a Land Mine Eye Hath Seen" preceding the sermon. The other music for the service was congregational singing of patriotic hymns.

At the close of the sermon by Reverend Randolph, who is Southern born and reared, the old soldiers, in passing the pulpit where the young minister stood as they filed out of the church, each gave him a hearty handshake in appreciation of his sermon that was full to the brim of patriotism, and as the women of the Relief Corps followed, they also shook hands with him.

Rev. Randolph took his text from Exodus 12:14, "And this day shall be unto you for a memorial." He said:

"We met today for a purpose that has the dignity and tenderness of a funeral service without its sadness. It is not a new bereavement, but one that time has softened, that brings us here. We are not called upon to stand beside the new made grave and pronounce the mystic words, ashes to ashes, dust to dust. The earth has hidden the scars upon her bosom from the sexton's spade with a kindly mantle of sod. Above every tomb the warm summer sun has shown, and the butterfly ancient emblem of immortality, has waved its tiny wings above the resting place of every comrade.

"Almost half a century has gone since Lee handed his conquered sword to Grant and the Grand Army passed in review at Washington. Men who in that triumphant procession, marched with the lusty step of youth, are tottering with age and listening for the last roll call. A few years more and all the vast host who were baptized with fire and blood on 'the field of honor' will have been mustered out and the muster rolls laid away forever.

"War is endless and the distance traversed by its echo is immeasurable. But time softens all hurts. We see more clearly through the perspective of years. The heat of battle is gone. The smoke of conflict has drifted away. From the vantage point of fifty years we may look back at the great Civil war, and with vision less clouded by prejudice, gain a better understanding of the factors that for four long years plunged the nation into the raging fire of civil conflict.

"That such a conflict should come was inevitable. Our country was settled by two distinct types of Englishmen, the puritan and the cavalier. Both were brave and resourceful; worthy to become the fathers of a race of conquerors. The puritan brought to the new world the skill of the artisan, the instincts of the merchant, and the great, rugged God-fearing conscience molded by the theology of John Calvin. The cavalier was the child of chivalry. His reverence for woman amounted almost to worship. His ideals were those of the aristocrat. He had a passion to rule and a hunger for broad acres. Two different streams of life emerged from Plymouth and Jamestown. One flowed northward into Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont; southward into New York and Pennsylvania; westward into Ohio Indiana and Illinois, crossed the mighty Mississippi and went westward to the sea. The other flowed southward into the Carolinas, into Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Florida and crossed over into Texas. The cavalier settled Tennessee, Kentucky, Arkansas and to a large extent, Missouri. No one can understand the history of the United States who does not understand the difference between the ideals of the puritan and the cavalier. They had met and clashed on the soil of the old world. They were destined to meet and clash on the soil of the new.

"But there was a more fundamental reason why civil war was inevitable in the United States than a clash between the ideals of the puritan and cavalier. He would be a rash student of history who would assert that had the puritan landed at Jamestown and the cavalier at Plymouth, their roles in the Civil war would not have been reversed. All moral questions grow from economic roots. The economic inconsistency between slave labor and free labor had far more to do with bringing on the war than conflicting traditions. Lincoln was right when he said no nation could continue to exist half slave and half free. Free labor will destroy slave labor or slave labor will swallow up free labor. They cannot exist side by side. The time to have settled the slave question was when the constitution was written. It should then have been written out of it forever. No one man, no one set of men were responsible for the war, but conditions inherited from the past. The conflict was irrepressable. A chasm had opened between North and South that could be bridged only by human bodies. Passions had been aroused that nothing could satisfy but an appeal to arms. For four long years the quality of Americanism was to be tried by fire. 'The moving finger writes and all your piety nor wit can move it back to cancel half a line.'

"Great issues were at stake. What was to be the future of the Republic? Were there to be two English speaking nations on the North American continent? The world has never seen such a struggle. Those who thought a few weeks or a few months would end the war were neither prophets nor sons of phophets. Those in whose veins flows the blood of Norman and Saxon do not know when they are defeated. In defense of home and hearthstone they are ready to give the last full measure of the heart's devotion.

"Consider what manner of men clashed with sword and musket in the decisive battle of the Civl war. Keen of eye, with muscles of steel hardened athletes every inch, the god of battle never looked upon a fairer host. They were the third generation of pioneers. 'The uncleared forest, the unbroken soil,

'The iron bark that turned the lumberer's ax,

'The rapid that overbears the boatmans toil,

'The ambushed Indian and the prowling bear,

'Such were the needs that helped their youth to train.'

"Men such as these do not play at war. Those who enlisted for a holiday found it a holocaust.

"The conflict was cruel. Civil war cannot but be cruel. It sets brother against brother. In border states such as Kentucky, Tennessee and Missouri, brothers parted, one to go south and the other north. My grandmother told four of her sons good bye. Two served under the stars and bars and two under the stars and stripes. She heard from her doors the thunder of the guns of Fort Donalson. Two of her boys were behind its walls and two outside. What did she pray those nights as she knelt by the bed upon which she had borne her sons? Only the angel who keeps earth's secrets can tell. What did she suffer those nights as she listened to the distant roar? Only the heart of the Father knows. When the war was over and two of her sons came home, the sod was green over a mound on the hillside. They suffer most who stand and

POSTOFFICE FIGHT WORRIES MISSOURI SENATORS.

SENATOR STONE IS BUSY

Chairman of Important Sub-Committee Dealing With Tariff—Governorship Candidates Grooming Themselves.

By W. C. Van Cleve.

Washington, D. C., May 22.—The house of representatives has been marking time for the past week while the senate committee on finance is getting the tariff bill ready to report to the senate. According to the expectations of those in charge of the work this will be about June 5. The senate committee will recommend a good many amendments to the house bill, some of them making important changes.

One change that has been suggested will be to put live stock and meats and grains and their manufactured products on the same basis. The house bill makes cattle, sheep, wheat and oats, for instance, subject to duty, while fresh and cured meats, flour and oatmeal are admitted free. The senate committee proposes, according to the present program, to either make all subject to duty or place all on the free list.

Senator Stone is one of the busiest men in the senate. He is chairman of a subcommittee that has in charge five of the important schedules of the tariff bill. These are the schedules covering earthenware and glassware, metals, wools and woolens, silks and the free list. The committee has been working late into each night, but manages to give a little time each day to the throngs that beset his office rooms. It is the intention of the Democratic senators to push the bill through the senate with all possible dispatch, but the Republicans are lining up for a stiff fight and the Democratic margin is very narrow, so there are few who will predict its passage through that body before August first.

The St. Louis postoffice has furnished its share of annoyance to the Missouri senators. The fight seems to have developed a peculiar mix-up. Senator Reed gave his hearty endorsement to Colin Selph, president of a Democratic club and Senator Stone joined in the endorsement. David R. Francis and Rolla Wells are understood to be behind Mr. Scanlon, a wealthy gentleman who wants the office for pastime. Joseph W. Folk has endorsed a shrewd business man named Lewis, and ex-Congressman Pat Gill has the endorsement of Mr. Igoe, the Democratic member of Congress from St. Louis, most if not all the Missouri representatives and many party workers. Mr. Selph's friends declare an unfair fight has been made on him and that he will be appointed, but some of the other candidates are working hard and are equally confident. Both Selph and Gill have been here during the past week pushing their claims.

tI is possible that this congress will furnish three candidates in the race for the Democratic nomination for governor in Missouri three years hence. Representative Lloyd of the first district has already enjoyed a long service in the house and would not be averse to finishng off at Jefferson City. He was urged by many friends to run last year, but decided not to do so. Representative Borland of Kansas City, a member of the appropriations committee, is said to have his eye on the governorship, and Representative Joe Russell of Charleston, who gave much attention during last session to pension legislation, is said to be preparing to take offices in the new capitol. Then there is Uncle Dorsey Shackleford, he of good roads fame. It will be well to keep an eye on him.

Two Missourians, Ernest Martin of Marshall and L. H. Musgrave of Ash Grave, have organized the "Democratic Fair Play Association." Its purpose is to reform the civil service, secure a segregation of the races in the departments and incidentally jar loose some jobs for the Democratic faithful. There are more than twenty-two thousand colored men and women employed by the government, according to figures produced, under civil service and drawing aggregate annual salaries of more than twelve million dollars. Many complaints have been made because large numbers of white ladies are compelled to work with negro bosses and divison chiefs and are compelled to take dictation from them and be constantly under their supervision.

White house plums are dropping very slowly. So far they are hardly keeping up with the deaths and resignations. It may be that they won't ripen until the tariff pudding is baked.

DEATH OF MRS. J. T. HAYS.

Passed Away Sunday Evening After Seven Months of Suffering—Funeral Wednesday.

After seven months of patient suffering from heart trouble with complications, Mrs. James T. Hays of Prather avenue passed away Sunday evening at 7:45 o'clock.

The funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First M. E. church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Gilbert S. Cox.

Mrs. Hays was taken ill the 10th of last October while visiting her daughter, Mrs. N. E. Dawson, who lived at Sheridan at that time. She became better and while visiting another daughter, Mrs. Z. Rolla Alexander, north of Maryville, during Christmas week, she was taken critically ill on December 26. She was able to be brought home the 4th of January, but has been in a critical condition most of the time since and has been a great sufferer. She obtained relief from her pain many times from the singing of sacred songs that she loved, sung to her by members of the family or friends who came to sing for her, and through the ministry of song she has known many a happy hour that could not have otherwise been possible. She was a devout Christian woman and had been a member of the Methodist church since young womanhood.

Mrs. Hays' maiden name was Laura Aurella Young. She was born December 7, 1844, in Hillsboro, High and county, Ohio, the daughter of Milton Madison and Mary Jane Young. She was the oldest of six children, two of whom are living, William Young of West Point, Calif., and Mrs. Kate Cheney of Osceola, Mo. Another sister, Mrs. Lee D. Bell of Neosha, Mo., who was well known in Maryville, died in 1908.

Mrs. Hays came to Nodaway county with her widowed mother and her family in 1866. On the 14th of February, 1868, she was married to John Thomas Hays, and they settled at once on his farm four miles west of Skidmore, where they lived until they moved to Maryville twenty years ago. Ten children were born to them, seven of whom are living and are Mrs. W. A. Argo, Milton R. Hays, Pearl C. Hays and Mrs. N. E. Dawson of near Skidmore; Eddie C. Hays and James T. Hays, Jr., of Mullin, Neb., and Mrs. Z. Rolla Alexander of Maryville. A daughter, Hermione Hays, died at the age of 18 in 1897. Two other children died in infancy.

Mrs. Hays' mother, Mrs. Mary J. Young, after ten years of widowhood, married the late Samuel Hull of Maryville who was the grandfather of Herman W. Hull and Mrs. Flora Quinn of Maryville.

AN AUTO ACCIDENT.

In Going Around Corner, Automobile Turned Over, But No One Was Hurt.

No one was hurt in an automobile accident which occured Saturday night about three miles southwest of the city near the Bell Grove school house, but the car was badly damaged. E. L. Charles was driving the car and did not notice the turn in the road near the school house until he was right upon it, and then turning, upset the car and caused it to turn completely over on its wheels again. One of the occupants of the car, Earl Charles, was thrown out of the car, while the two other occupants remained and were not injured. It was certainly a narrow escape for the occupants of the car. The damage to the car consisted of breaking the fenders, the lights, the windshield, the steering wheel and the spokes in the right back wheel being all knocked out and the wheel coming off.

HOME COMING DAY.

The Harmony Church to Have Big Time on Sunday, June 8—Program Will Be Announced Later.

The home coming day of the Harmony church, east of town, will take place on Sunday, June 8 and all former residents of that community and attendants of that church are invited to attend the celebration. At noon, a big basket dinner will be served and speakers will be secured. The program for the day will be announced later.

Iowa Guests Leave.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Davis of Alvord, Ia., who have been spending several days in Maryville with Mr. Davis' father, George D. Davis, and sister, Miss Ruth Davis, left for Des Moines Monday, where they will be until Thursday, while Mr. Davis attends the Iowa State Bankers' meeting, which will be held Tuesday and Wednesday. Mr. Davis is president of the National bank of Alvord.

Mrs. C. P. Ingerson and her sister, Miss Maybird Parrish, vsited at Conception Junction over Sunday at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Gabe Purcell and family.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dittamore, living east of Ravenwood, announce the birth of a daughter, Friday, May 22.

WORK OF LIFETIME

"A SUM IN ADDITION" IS A BIG MAN'S JOB.

A BIG CROWD HEAR IT

Reverend Harkness Gave the Best Problem Yet to the High School Graduating Class.

The baccalaureate services for the graduating class of the Maryville high school, held in the First Christian church Sunday night, witnessed the largest crowd in attendance yet at a like service. Many were unable to gain entrance. Everyone noticed the beautiful appearance of the interior of the church, which is still undergoing improvement. The walls of the entire church interior have been newly frescoed, in exquisite colors and shades of olive green, gold and browns, and all looks like a brand new church building.

The invocation was given by Rev. Gilbert S. Cox, the scripture lesson by Rev. Claude J. Miller, and the prayer led by Rev. J. D. Randolph, after the graduating class, looking so charming and handsome in their gray caps and gowns, had been ushered to their seats by Mr. Edward Gray of the mid-winter class of 1912-13.

Rev. S. D. Harkness of the First Presbyterian church preached the sermon on the subject, "A Sum in Addition," from the text found in II Peter, 6-7-8: "Add to your faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge temperence, and to temperence patience, and to patience godliness, and to godliness brotherly kindness, and to brotherly kindness love."

Reverend Harkness said he hoped the class would not consider it beneath its dignity to consider the sum in addition he wished to present to them, for the working of it would mean more to each one than any sum in mathematics that would confront them in college or university, for there was none equal to it anywhere. His words burned into the hearts of all who heard, for it was a message answering the great needs of today of which Macterlink says, "Never was there a time in any age of the world's history when the pressure of the soul was so strong."

"ANGEL DOCTOR" DEAD.

New York Doctor Made Dear to Maryville People By Lecture Course Speaker.

Maryville people who heard the lecture of Dr. John Gray at the First M. E. church during the State Normal lecture course, will be interested in the account of the death of "the angel doctor" of New York City, of whom Dr. Gray spoke frequently, when he told of his experiences while slumming for three months to see how "the other half of the world" lives.

"The angel doctor's" death occurred on Thursday and the telegraphic announcement of it is as follows:

The lower east side is in mourning, for the "angel doctor" is dead. Thirty years ago he came to Little Hungary and since that time had endeared himself to the poor of the district by administering to their ills and steadfastly refusing pay. Few of his neighbors knew more of him than that, but when he died in his barren room yesterday, they hastened out to spend their pennies for candles. They marched up the narrow stair by twos and threes and stood in awe about the blanket-covered figure.

The "angel doctor's" real name was Dr. Karoly. He was born in Hungary sixty years ago and came to this country in 1881. Soon after he arrived here he changed his name, calling himself Dr. Frank Charles. He practiced on the Pacific coast and in Chicago for a time and in 1883 settled on the east side. He is said to have been able to speak seventeen languages and was a profund student of medicine. Yesterday he was chatting with a friend when suddenly he started from his chair.

"Joe, I'm going; before it's too late, I want to tell you the great secret of my—"

That is as far as he got, for he fell forward dead.

Mrs. Ella Brewer of Olathe, Kan., left for her home Monday morning after a short visit with her son, A. A. Brewer and family. Mrs. Brewer stopped in Maryville on her way home from a visit in Chicago with her daughter.

Mrs. Donald Cady of St. Joseph came Saturday for a visit with her mother, Mrs. C. P. Denny and family.

THE BAPTIST TEAM WON.

Defeated the Presbyterians by a Score of 12 to 7—Was the First Game of the League.

The First game of the Sunday School baseball league was played Saturday afternoon at the Normal park and the Baptist team defeated the Presbyterians by a score of 12 to 7. The game was seven innings.

The Baptist team was composed of only seven players, while the Presbyterians had the full nine. Conley pitched for the Baptists and Vandersloot opposed him. Conley had 13 strike-outs to his credit and Vandersloot only 3. Van allowed eight free passes.

The lineup follows:

Baptist—Wiles, c; Conley, p; Roy David, 3b; Cook, fielder; Westbrook, ss; Quinn, 1b; Anderson, ss.

Presbyterian—K. Van Cleve, 3b; H. Sawyers, ss; Murray, 1b; Vandersloot, p; Fred Hutchison, c; Cottrill, 2b; Neff, rf; Barr, cf; Gillam, lf.

There was a fair sized crowd at the game and the interest was good. V. I. Moore and Emmett Scott were the umpires.

The game of the First M. E. team and the Buchanan Street Methodist team which was postponed Saturday was being played this afternoon at the Normal park.

DEATH OF A. A. REESE.

Pioneer Elmo Resident Died Sunday Morning and Was Buried Sunday Afternoon.

A. A. Reese died at his home in Elmo on Sunday morning at 7 o'clock after a few weeks illness of pneumonia. He was also under quarantine for smallpox, as he had that disease in a light form. No funeral services were held and the remains were buried in the Dawson graveyard. No services were held on account of the smallpox quarantine.

Mr. Reese was born in Fountain county, Ind., on June 23, 1844. He had been a resident of the Elmo vicinity about 32 years. He first settled in Dawson and had a drug store there for six years and then moved to Elmo and continued the drug business at that town for 18 years. For the past ten years, he was in the dry goods business at Elmo.

Mr. Reese was married twice, his first wife dying in 1888. Her maiden name was Jane Mathews. There are four children surviving, who are Mrs. Flora Anderson, Will, Donnie and Harlan Reese, all at Elmo. The second time, he married Miss Emily Radford, who survives with the following children: Nina, Mrs. Minnie Anderson, Roy Eva and Raymond Reese, all at Elmo. He was a member of the A. F. & A. M. lodge of Elmo.

THE NORMAL TEAM WON.

Defeated the Amity College Team Saturday at Amity by Score of 3 to 2.

The Normal baseball team won the game played Saturday at Amity with the college team of that place. The score was 3 to 2. Wilson pitched for the Normal and Lynch for Amity. The Normal made their three scores in the first inning.

The game Saturday finished the ball season for the Normal. They did not win many games. L. M. Eck was in charge of the ball team on their trip to Tarkio, Peru, Nebr., and Amity.

C. D. Hocker of Guilford was a business visitor in Maryville Saturday.

WOOD AND ATTEAUX.

They Are Charged With Complicitiy In Lawrence Dynamite Planting Case.

Photos by American Press Association.

John J. Breen's testimony was expected to be damaging to William M. Wood (top), president of the American Woolen company, and Frederick E. Atteaux, a Boston manufacturer, who are accused of complicity in "planting" dynamite to discredit strikers in Lawrence, Mass. Breen said he was hired by Atteaux to "plant" the explosive, but did not implicate Wood.

WANT IOWA ROAD

NODAWAY COUNTY MEN COME WITH IOWA MEN.

IOWA TO KEEP IN SHAPE

If Commission Will Select Route the Iowa End, It is Promised, Will Be Kept Up.

A large delegation from Burlington Junction, Clearmont, Braddyville and Clarinda was in the city Monday afternoon and appeared before the county highway commission to present their claims for the state line road. Two of the three commissioners of Page county, Wm. Jeffrey and Frank Hensleigh, and Isaac Taggart, county highway engineer, were in the party and urged the commission to select the road to Burlington Junction, then to Clearmont to the state line as the state road. They promised that they would keep the road on the Iowa side in fine shape. At the present time, Page county is keeping up the road from Clarinda to Braddyville and the road is said to be best road around here anywhere.

The party invited the members of the commission here to accompany them on their return trip home.

The following were the members in the party:

LEAVING FOR TEXAS.

Dr. Taylor and Family Started for Their Southern Home This Afternoon.

Prof. and Mrs. H. K. Taylor, Miss Hattie Mae and Jack Taylor, left Maryville Monday evening for their new home in Arlington, Texas. They stopped at St. Joseph Monday evening for a few days' visit with Mrs. Taylor's sister, Mrs. L. C. Gabbert, and family. They will make another stop at Excelsior Springs for Professor Taylor's benfit. It is sincerely regretted by Professor Taylor's friends that he was unable to meet them before leaving for his new home. He is suffering from a severe case of nervous prostration and his physicians say it will be some time before he will be able for work. The good wishes of Maryville people are with Professor Taylor and his family. They have made numerous friends by their uniform courtesy and kindness to everyone.

President and Mrs. Richardson took possession of the Normal residence on Saturday and will be at home in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lierley of Conception Junction spent Sunday and Monday at Gilman City wth Mr. Lierley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Lierley.

Miss Marie Jones arrived from Spickard, Mo., Saturday where she appeared in concert Friday night, and visited over Sunday with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Jones.

Mrs. O. W. Swinford and her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Shell, returned Saturday from a short visit at Neosha Falls, Mo., with their daughter and sister, Mrs. J. A. Carter.

Mrs. W. H. Trueblood and daughter of Kansas City, who are visiting here, went to Hopkins Saturday to visit Mrs. Trueblood's cousin, Ora Burch and family.

Mrs. W. M. Hall and son Wilbur of Pickering were Maryville visitors Saturday.

Mix 'Em.

I bought a box of strawberries,
And after I had got 'em,
I found on top they were like this:
O O O O O O
And like this at the bottom:
o o o o o o

So long as "biz" is what it is
I don't expect to find
The ones on top the smaller size
o o o o o o
The lower ones this kind:
O O O O O O

That were too much, but I should get
An honest deal, I wis,
And find 'em not packed in this way:
O O O O O O
o o o o o o
But sorter mixed like this:

TREATMENT FOR FIRE BLIGHT.

Amputation and Cauterization Are Heroic Measures That Are Effective.

J. C. Whitten of the Agricultural Experiment Station at Columbia writes as follows on the fire blight of the apple:

"Recently a disease has been spreading through the apple orchards of Missouri killing much of the newly set fruit and many of the young growing shoots of the trees. This disease is fire blight. It attacks the pear as well as the apple and quince. It develops to a serious degree almost every year in pears. It rarely causes as much injury in apples as it is doing this season.

"It is caused by a bacterial parasite which develops in the growing layer of the tree, causing the tissues to die as seen in the blighting orchards at the present time.

There is no other known preventive than cutting out and burning the blighted parts. It is now too late to accomplish much by cutting out the blighted parts in apple trees, as in the apple it has already run its course for this season. It continues to live in the pear, however, throughout the year. Continue to cut out the blighted parts from pear trees through the remainder of the season.

"The best time to cut out blight is in late winter or early spring, just before the blossoming season. It winters over mostly in pears, though occasionally in a few apples like Jonathan and Yellow Transparent. While the blight now shows in millions of blighted places on the trunks it will winter over only in a few places here and there in the trunk, main limbs or occasionally in the twigs. In early spring these winter pockets of blight may be seen in blistered areas on the bark, which give off honey-like exudations. Insects feed on these honey-like masses oozing from winter blight pockets. This honey-like mass is full of germs of the disease which are carried by the insects to the blossoms and growing points in spring. If these winter pockets can be cut out, and the wounds painted no blight germs will be left and the disease will not spread during the spring and early summer. If a blight pocket here and there is overlooked near the blossoming time, the disease will spread from it to the flower clusters and growing twigs. These first blighted parts in the flower clusters and new twigs put out honey-like exudations which stand in little beads on the young twigs, leaf stems or young fruit stems. Could these have been cut out just after the blossoming period this year, the present enormous spread of blight could have been prevented. It would be well to keep this point in mind next spring wherever blight is serious this year.

"Treatment with salt, calomel, iron and other things have been recommended for preventing blight. None of these, except cutting out the blight, is of any use. The reason why salt or iron stirred into the soil under a blighting tree or calomel injected under its bark seems to check the blight is because the spring blight runs its course so quickly that by the time it is observed and the alleged remedy applied, the blight is usually ready to stop of its own accord."

SURELY BANISHES CATARRH.

Where there's catarrh there's thousands of catarrh germs. You can't get rid of catarrh unless you kill these germs.

You can't kill them with stomach medicine or sprays because they can't get where germs are.

You can kill these germs with Booth's HYMOEI, a penetrating, antiseptic, balsamic air that you breathe a few times a day directly over the raw, sore, germ infested membrane. It does not contain morphine or any habit forming drug.

For catarrh, corup coughs, and colds. HYOMEI is sold on money back plan by Orear-Henry Drug Co. Complete outfit, $1.00. Extra bottles of Booth's HYMOEI if afterwards needed, only 50 cents. Just breathe it—no stomach dosing.—Advertisement.

Miss Ruth Gilmore of Carl Junction, Mo., arrived in Maryville Saturday to attend the Normal.

Miss Mollie Cooke went to Agency, Mo., Saturday evening on account of the illness of her brother, T. W. Cooke.

Misses Vernie Clemmons, Florence and Carrie Newcomer went to their homes at Guilford Saturday for an over Sunday visit with home folks.

Mrs. H. A. Byers was called to St. Joseph Saturday evening on account of the illness of her two little grandchildren, Karleen and Sidney Conley, children of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Conley, formerly of this city.

Mrs. W. M. Shelton and son, Dr. Will Shelton of St. Joseph, and Mrs. Robert Limerick of Savannah, returned home Saturday evening, having been called to the funeral services for W. S. Trewett, the brother-in-law of Mrs. Shelton and Mrs. Limerick.

Came for Their Car.

Mr. Philip Strop and his sister, Miss Lillian Strop, of St. Joseph, came to Maryville Saturday noon and visted a short time with their relatives, the families of J. F. Montgomery and G. B. Holmes. They returned home in the evening with their car that was disabled while they were attending the track meet a few weeks ago and had been here ever since waiting for the weather and an opportune time to appear at one time for bringing it home.

HUNDRED YEAR CLUBS.

Believe Life May Be Prolonged.

Men who are devoting their lives to the study of longevity believe that in days to come a man of ninety will be in his prime, and old age will begin long past a hundred years.

Scientists have proved that the simple life, temperate habits, exercise, and an active mind are essential to a long and happy life.

When the blood gets thin and sluggish and creeps lazily through the veins, and the arteries begin to harden, there is nothing that will enrich the blood, improve the circulation and restore strength to every back-sliding organ on the body so quickly as our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol. Here is proof.

Mrs. Michael Bloom of Lewiston, Pa., at 83 years of age was so weak she had to be wheeled around in an invalid's chair—she writes that after taking a few bottles of Vinol she could take long walks and do her housework. That shows how Vinol strengthens old people.

Try Vinol on our guarantee that it will do you good or cost you nothing. —Orear-Henry Drug Co., Maryville, Mo.—Advertisement.

Mrs. Jesse Perdew of Lyons, Kan., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. John Snapp, left for her home Monday morning. Mrs. Perdew will stop at Hutchison, Kan., to visit her son, Guy E. Perdew. She makes her home with her son, Grover G. Perdew, and his wife at Lyons.

Mrs. Jessie Bowers of Conway, Ia., arrived Saturday evening to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Cole, living five miles northeast of Maryville.

The Last Class Meeting.

The senior class of the Parnell high school held its farewell meeting Sunday afternoon with Miss Matie Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Evans. This was the class which graduated the night of May 16, and is the first class from the new school building, built last year. It is known as the "High Flying Class," for it has two martins and a bird among its four boys and two girls, Miss Elma Martin, Miss Lottie Byrd and Mr. Martin B. Farrell, while the other members of the class are Miss Marguerite Gaynor, W. Troy Bloomfield and Miss Matie Evans. Miss Evans is the youngest student that has been graduated from the Parnell schools, as she is not yet fifteen years old. She also won the scholarship offered by the Chillicothe Normal. The graduating exercises were held in the M. E. church, which was beautifully decked in potted plants and the class colors, pink and white. Superintendent J. A. Whiteford of the St. Joseph public schools delivered the class address.

Raised Seventy-Five Dollars.

The women of the First Baptist church held a delightful all-day session Friday at the church, which is the first of the series of such meetings they will hold within the coming months for the purpose of raising a pledge of $300 they have made for the church budget. The day was spent in tacking comforts and making plans for the future work. At 12 o'clock an elaborate buffet luncheon was served on the lawn. In the afternoon an informal program preceded by devotional services led by Mrs. H. W. Hull was given. Several readings were given by Miss Mabel Miller and Esther Gile. After this each one laid a silver dollar on the plate and related her experience in earning it. When the last experience was in, there was $75 of their pledge paid. At 6 o'clock, another buffet luncheon was served to those who remained for the social given in the evening for the young people. During the evening, Miss Mabel Miller gave several other readings, after which ice cream and cake were served. As Friday's experience meeting proved so successful, the women of the church have decided to raise their money in this way rather than by maintaining a dining hall at the chautauqua this summer. The next all-day meeting will be held about the first of September at the home of Mrs. Wm. Everhart.

Bride Visiting Her Parents.

Mrs. Glade Bradley of Grand Island, Neb., formerly Miss Helen Ford, arrived in Maryville Saturday night on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ford, 128 South Main street, and her sister, Mrs. Joseph Jackson, Jr. This is Mrs. Bradley's first visit home since her marriage last January.

P. E. O. Social Meeting.

Mrs. J. C. Allender entertained the P. E. O. chapter at dominoes Saturday afternoon. oFur tables were arranged for the games and the favor went to Mrs. Fred Kurtz. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. D. Richey and Miss Mabel Todd, served refreshments following the game. The chapter's delegates, Mrs. J. D. Richey and Miss Nelle Hudson, will leave next week for the State Grand Chapter convention at Shelbina, and the next meeting of the local chapter will be held shortly after their return.

Mrs. Clara Bradley, grand president of the ladies' auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, says that transportation companies may soon be employing women as engineers, conductors and even as trainmen.

Robert Collett of Springfield, Mo., was elected president of the International Railway Fuel association. Other officials chosen were: A. C. Buell of Omaha and D. H. Sebastian of Chicago, vice presidents, and C. G. Hall of Chicago, secretary-treasurer.

UNITY WAITS ON UNION SEMINARY

Pan-Presbyterianism Deferred till School Question is Settled.

Atlanta, Ga., May 26.—Now that the four general assemblies have concluded their work the question comes, How far toward the desired goal of pan-Presbyterianism has the Atlanta project advanced the church?

In the first place, it should be said, that complete unity was not looked for at these simultaneous conventions. Definite steps toward unity were looked for and taken. In a word, this is the concrete result: The Southern and United Presbyterians appointed committees to work out a basis of union to be reported to their respective assemblies a year hence for action; the Northern and Reformed Presbyterians cordially approved the project of unity and recorded their intentions to co-operate with the others practically as soon as certain details can be arranged.

The Southern church, which is the original proponent of pan-Presbyterianism, plainly states that while it desires ultimate union with all, the time is not yet ripe for merging with the Northern brethren. The delay is not occasioned by any sectionalism, however; it is the same old question of Union seminary.

"Settle that properly and definitely," say both Southern and United Presbyterians, "and then we will talk unity with you."

Forty Perish When Nevada Sinks.

London, May 26.—A dispatch from Smyrna to Lloyds says that forty persons were drowned by the sinking of the steamer Nevada, which struck the mines in the Gulf of Smyrna.

CONDENSED NEWS

Subpoenas were issued for five Chicago packers to appear as witnesses before the vice and minimum wage commission of the state senate, which resumed its hearing at Chicago.

Henry Orlofsky, a pawnbroker, wanted in Clovis, N. M., for the alleged theft of jewelry valued at $3,000, jumped from a moving Southern Pacific train and escaped from Sheriff Moore.

"Most of the Americans in Porto Rico live ungodly lives, furnishing the worst of moral example to the natives," declared Miss Laura Dresser, a Baptist missionary of Porto Rico, to the Baptist convention at Detroit.

Stephen J. Stilwell, state senator, recently exonerated by the New York state senate of charges of bribery, was found guilty of bribery by a jury. The maxumum penalty for the crime is ten years' imprisonment and $500 fine.

CAN YOU DOUBT IT?

When the Proof Can Be So Easily Investigated.

When so many grateful citizens of Maryville testify to benefit derived from Doan's Kidney Pills, can you doubt the evidence? The proof is not far away—it is almost at your door. Read what a resident of Maryville says about Doan's Kidney Pills. Can you demand more convincing testimony?

T. A. Murray, 707 East Fourth street, Maryville, Mo., says: "The public statement I gave several years ago was correct in every way, and it gives me pleasure to verify it. I had pains in my back and my kidneys bothered me. Doan's Kidney Pills which I got at Love & Gaugh's drug store gave me permanent relief. I will always recommend them for they can be relied on."

THERE'S ONE FLAG

wait. 'Victory,' said the Duke of Wellington 'is the greatest tragedy in the world except defeat.'

"Those who fear the future of the nation would do well to read the history of the past. Never did men die more grandly than the Americans who gave up their lives on the battle fields from 1861 to 1865. As I read of their heroism, my heart swells with pride that I am an American. I rejoice that there is now neither puritan nor cavalier, but that out of the suffering of civil conflict has been born a new Americanism that is not sectional but national. The evil passions of the war are smouldering out. The stainless purity of the manhood of Lee and Lincoln are the priceless heritage of the whole nation, North and South. 'We all march one way,' Lincoln said in his first inaugural address; 'we are not enemies but friends. We must not be enemies. Though pasion may have strained, it must not break the bonds of our affection. The mystic cords of memory stretching from every battle field and patriot grave, to every living heart and hearthstone all over this broad land, will yet swell the chorus of the union, when touched as they surely will be by the better angels of our nature.' Before the war clouds had all been swept away, the tongue that uttered these deathless words was forever silenced. The dark days of reconstruction came on. A reconstruction that did more to imbitter the South than all that had gone before. The South had been forced back into the Union, but at heart was more bitterly hostile to it than when she fired upon the flag at Fort Sumter. But a better day was dawning. The troops were withdrawn and the carpetbagger banished. Relieved from her fear of negro dominion, the South took stock and begun to rebuild her shattered fortunes. The 'mystic cords of memory stirred' Henry W. Grady, the son of a Confederate verteran and a citizen of Georgia, in 1886, stood before the New England club and begun an epoch marking speech with the words, 'There was a South of slavery and secession—that South is dead. There is a South of union and freedom—that South, thank God, is living, breathing and growing every hour.'

"My friends, I am southern born and southern reared. If I know those with whom my youth was spent, there is but one flag in the South, and that flag is the Stars and Stripes. We speak the name of Lee tenderly, reverently. Our hearts thrill when the band plays 'Dixie.' Our eyes grow dim and we are silent when the bent form with the empty sleeve passes our window, but there is only one flag in the South and that flag is the Stars and Stripes."

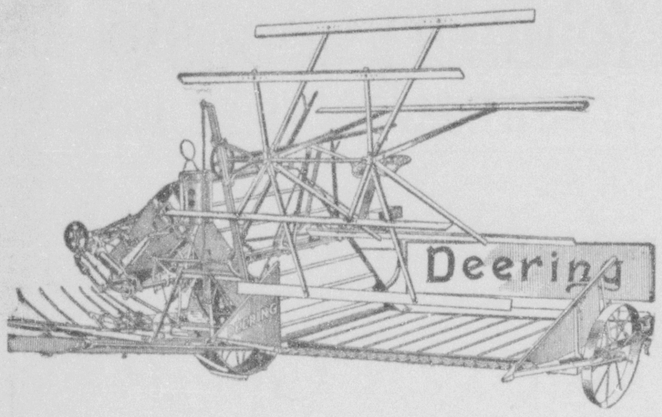
Why I Should Use a Deering



The Deering was the first twine binder with a knoter of real practical value, which has been in use for thirty years.

The Deering was the pioneer binder in the use of ball and roller bearings, which makes it the lightest draft of any make.

The shape of the breast plate prevents choking, which means a saving of time and power.

A reliable butt adjuster, either board or canvass.

Levers close to driver. Easy to operate and adjust to various conditions. All in front instead of the rear.

A practical elevator canvas tightener.

Light, strong and durable reel.

An effective platform canvas stretcher.

Cuts high stubble or close to the ground.

Friction reel safety device prevents breakage.

Positive gear-drive wheel, no chains.

Hot riveted main frames reinforced with famous K brace; others coming to it.

The lightest and strongest main wheel built. Note strengthening groove.

A very practical tongue truck on all sizes.

High flanges on wheels prevent side draft.

A long, step binder deck, which assures rapid work.

A light, strong, simple bundle carrier, easy to operate. The original bevel gear binding attachment.

Satisfied owners are our best reference. Let us furnish you a list, and see for yourself.

MANSLAUGHTER FOR PELKEY

Northwest Police Prefer This Charge at Calgary.

HEART IN GOOD CONDITION.

Post Mortem Examination of Dead Fighter Reveals His Neck Was Dislocated — Manslaughter Charge Is Preferred Against Pelkey.

Calgary, May 26.—Arthur Pelkey, from whose stiff right hook near the heart Luther McCarty fell dead in the ring at the Burns arena in Calgary, will face a charge of manslaughter in the police court. The Royal Northwest mounted police completed the necessary papers in the charge placed against him.

A dislocated neck caused the death of McCarty during his fight with Pelkey, according to information given out, following an autopsy conducted by Dr. Mochier at the request of Coroner Costello.

It was stated by the physicians that death undoubtedly had been caused by the dislocated neck and that the heart was found to be sound. A clot of blood on the brain aided in convincing the physicians that death was not due to the blow near the heart.

Shortly after the contest began, McCarty received a sharp jab to the jaw, which sent his head back quickly. It did not appear to have caused any pain and he was afterward on his feet for half a minute. The left to the jaw was followed by Pelkey with a right to the heart region, which caused the spectators to believe the latter blow had brought the knockout, but the physicians are of the opinion that the dislocation of the neck was not sustained in the fall which followed. He fell slowly and did not strike his head.

Just before the death of McCarty was announced, it developed, Pelkey had slipped into his street clothes at the request of this trainers and was driven to his hotel in an automobile. It was not until he had washed and dressed that he learned of McCarty's death. He started from the hotel when officers arrived and took him into custody.

An autopsy was held over the dead fighter's body. The result is withheld pending the inquest.

Numerous doubts were expressed as to the actual cause of death. It did not seem as if there was sufficient force behond the blow to the heart to cause death, several have declared. Pelkey said he did not believe that his punch actually landed near the heart.

It was rumored that McCarty had suffered from a slight weakness of the heart and this, in conjunction with the extreme excitement and the landing of the punch, are blamed for his death.

McCarty's body will be shipped to his birthplace at Hastings, Neb.

Will Put Lid On.

The fatal ending will have the effect of putting the lid down tight on boxing bouts in western Canada.

Betting on the contest was lively at two to one with Pelkey holding out for ten rounds, while McCarty was five to one favorite for the decision. It was generally supposed that Pelkey could not assimilate enough science in three weeks to give him a chance with McCarty. Pelkey showed a great deal of improvement over his former appearance. In the bout he had exhibited better judgment of distance than his opponent and also put more steam into his blows.

It was stated unofficially that as soon as the responsibilities for McCarty's death have been placed, Pelkey will go south to meet Gunboat Smith.

TO FIX BLAME FOR PIER DISASTER

Inquiry at Long Beach Where Thirty-five Lost Lives.

DEATH LIST IS GROWING.

Several of the Injured Are Not Expected to Survive—Damage Suits Aggregating Million Dollars Will Follow—Victims Are Chiefly Women.

Long Beach, Cal., May 26.—Prospective damage suits, aggregating probably $1,000,000 or more, and a grand jury investigation engaged the attention of city officials as the most imminent outcome of the disaster when thirty-five persons lost their lives in the collapse of a portion of the municipal pier just after the close of the British Empire day pageant.

The list of dead was added to by the death of Mrs. E. C. Bush, seventy years old, who succumbed to her injuries. The list is expected to be further increased by the death of Miss Marguerite Reed, aged twelve, of Long Beach, whose back was broken, and of W. C. Cooper of Pasadena, Cal., one of the two veterans of the Crimean war, who were in the van of the Empire Day parade. Rectification of errors made in the list of dead brought out the following names:

Miss Frances Harriett Newell of Kenosha, Wis.; Mrs. Mollie Gates of Oak Park, Ill.; Miss Lilly M. Holmes of Denver, Ernest G. Eales and wife of Los Angeles, Mrs. M. P. McDonald of Compton, Cal.

Too weak to uphold the burden of nearly 10,000 human beings assembled for the festivities of British "Empire day," the land end of the big double decked municipal pier in front of the city auditorium at Long Beach, Cal., collapsed. Hundreds of persons on the top deck were plunged down on the heads of other hundreds crowded on the second deck. The lower deck then gave way and all were dropped down a chute of shattered woodwork to the tide-washed sands twenty-five feet below.

Thirty-three persons, mostly women, were killed by the shivered timbers or crushed to death by falling bodies of companions and friends. Fifty more were seriously injured, while hysteria and paralyzing fright disabled scores of others.

The victims were subjects or former subjects of Great Britain, in southern California.

ROOSEVELT AT MARQUETTE

Will Push His Libel Case Against an Editor.

Marquette, Mich., May 26.—Theodore Roosevelt arrived here to prosecute his libel suit against George A. Newett, publisher of the Iron Ore at Ishpeming. The suit resulted from the publication during the last presidential campaign of an article in the Iron Ore, in which a statement was made that Colonel Roosevelt was untruthful, was given to the use of profanity and used intoxicants to excess.

He will be his own personal witness. A number of men of national reputation will testify in Colonel Roosevelt's behalf.

Depositions to be submitted have been taken from former Surgeon General Rixey of the United States navy, Admiral Dewey, Albert Shaw, editor of the Review of Reviews, and many others. Declarations as to Colonel Roosevelt's habits have been obtained from men residing at the principal cities visited by him during the last campaign.

Colonel Roosevelt has been informed that Mr. Newett's attorneys have been active in gathering depositions in an attempt to prove justification for the publication of the articles.

MEETING TO BE CALLED

National Committee Will Meet Sixty Days After Congress Quits.

Washington, May 26.—Leaders of the Republican party—members of the executive committee of the national comwittee from twelve states—gathered here and laid preliminary plans for the congressional campaign of 1914 and the national political battle of two years later, to regain control of congress and possession of the White House.

As a result the Republican national committee will meet sixty days after the adjournment of the extra session of congress and an extraordinary Republican national convention is expected not later than a year hence. Changes in the basis of representation in national conventions and reforms of methods of party procedure, which have been subject to criticism, will be disposed of through these agencies. Close co operation between the national committee and the congressional campaign committee was agreed upon.

Sylvia Pankhurst Attacked by Crowd

London, May 26.—Victoria park, in the west end, was the scene of rioting when trade unionists and Socialists attempted to hold a demonstration in support of votes for working women. The crowd stormed a track on which were Sylvia Pankhurst and other militant suffragettes and dragged it out side the park.

SUNDRY CIVIL BILL COMES UP TO WILSON

Measure Likely to Reach President for Action This Week.

Washington, May 26.—President Wilson may have actually before him this week for his approval or rejection the much-buffeted $117,000,000 sundry civil appropriation bill, which includes the provision exempting labor unions and farmers' organizations from prosecution through funds appointed through enforcement of the Sherman anti-trust law.

What the president will do with the measure because of the exemption clause, which caused former President Taft to veto it, is engaging country-wide attention.

The executive's office has been flooded with letters and petitions regarding the measure, some urging him in emphatic language to veto it because of the exemption clause and others appealing to him to give it his approval.

While the president is deliberating the house and senate conferees have been marking time. The tariff situation will reach an interesting period this week when the senate finance subcommittees get down to the actual work of writing their revisions of the Underwood bill.
